

I would appreciate it if the current telephone privacy rulings in the state of Indiana stay as they currently have been established. I would not want even "established business relationships" to be able to contact me at my home. I prefer the opportunity to enjoy my evenings without the bother of unwanted phone calls.